WHAT WE DO

Manitoba Prosecution Service initiates and conducts prosecutions in all courts of Manitoba for offences committed contrary to the Criminal Code of Canada, the Youth Criminal Justice Act and all provincial statutes. This is an opportunity with Manitoba Prosecution Service to work in Portage la Prairie, Manitoba.

WHAT WE OFFER

We are dedicated to fostering a healthy workplace culture where people feel respected and empowered. We value trust, respect, and professionalism and are committed to workplace wellness.

We prioritize employee health and wellbeing, recognizing that work-life balance is key. We offer access to a comprehensive program that supports staff resiliency in a trauma impacted workplace. Wellness programming includes services such as training and education, therapeutic resources, occupational stress intervention and other stress mitigation and wellness activities. We are committed to equity and are strengthened by diversity. We are committed to truth and reconciliation and work towards building relationships and addressing the over-representation of Indigenous Peoples in the criminal justice system.

We offer a collaborative, progressive workplace that is committed to employee development, growth and excellence. We offer an in-house professional development curriculum for prosecutors, annual conferences and a formal mentorship program. Regional work provides for exposure to a wide variety of cases and communities, with access to support and mentorship from experts in the field.
