As a Crown Prosecutor, you will help deliver justice through fair and effective prosecutions. Public Prosecutions prosecutes those charged under the Criminal Code, Youth Criminal Justice Act and some provincial and federal statutes. Public Prosecutions assists in promoting safe communities through the just conclusion of criminal charges by various means, ranging from vigorous prosecution of trial matters to working with justice partners, individuals, and organizations to implement alternative resolutions.

The work offers an intellectual challenge and an opportunity to make a difference in your community. Your work as a Crown Prosecutor will be important to the community you'll call home and those throughout the region.

Under the direction of a Regional Crown Prosecutor and Public Prosecutions' Head Office, you will be responsible for a multitude of duties and decisions. Primary duties will be the carriage of criminal, quasi-criminal, and regulatory prosecutions in the Provincial Court for Saskatchewan and the Court of King's Bench for Saskatchewan. Such carriage will include docket court work, trial work, and summary conviction appeals. Other duties include meeting and communicating with victims and witnesses, giving legal opinions, reviewing police reports, and advising police as appropriate. The successful candidate will be expected to participate in legal education in the areas of criminal law, ethics, and the criminal justice system.

The hours of work can vary and include working evenings and weekends when duties require. Travel by road is required and possibly by air, with work possibly requiring overnight stays in other communities.

The competitive salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications. The person hired will be entitled to at least three weeks' annual vacation, twelve scheduled days off, and statutory holidays. The person hired will also be entitled to a full benefit package after six months of service.
